Forecast For Highland & Eilean Siar
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 14 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mostly dry, sunny spells. Becoming cloudier on the west coast.

Today:
Most places will be dry with plenty of warm sunshine. Dull, misty conditions with a little drizzle will edge into West Coast this afternoon and evening with freshening southwest winds. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloudy and misty tonight with patchy drizzle, mostly in the west. The drizzle dying out later tonight with some clear periods developing. A mild, muggy night with a westerly breeze. Minimum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Thursday:
A fine, dry day in many areas with plenty of warm sunshine. Cooler with some patches of mist and low cloud over the Western Isles. Light southwesterly winds. Maximum temperature 24 deg C (75 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
A mostly dry few days with some sunshine. However it will be rather cloudy at times, especially over Outer Hebrides and north Highlands with a little drizzle and mist patches.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.